Table with Visual Indicators

The image displays two screenshots of a mobile banking application's transaction activity screen. The left screenshot, titled 'Activity', shows transactions from 'This Week' and 'Last Week'. The right screenshot, titled 'Recent Activity', shows a list of transactions with a 'Shop' button and a 'View All' link. Both screens use visual indicators like green checkmarks and minus/plus signs to denote transaction status and direction.

Editable Table

The image displays two side-by-side screenshots of a spreadsheet application, labeled 3:21 and 3:22.

3:21: Shows a spreadsheet with columns A, B, and C containing headers 'task', 'person', and 'duedate' respectively. A context menu is open over the 'person' header, showing options: 'sheets', 'autosum', 'find', 'sort', and a three-dot menu.

3:22: Shows the same spreadsheet with a table structure. The headers are 'task', 'person', 'duedate', and 'cost'. The 'cost' column contains values 100, 200, 300, and 400. A summary row is visible at the bottom with the following data:
